

1 Reasons for exclusion

- 1.1 Although we pride ourselves at having the necessary expertise, experience and facilities to accommodate the special needs of our pupils, certain forms of dangerous, harmful, damaging, undisciplined, disruptive or similar conduct or behaviour may necessitate the temporary or permanent exclusion of a pupil from his/her class or the School. This is especially the case where such conduct or behaviour amounts to, or could amount to, a risk to the safety, health or welfare of the pupil, any other pupil, any member of staff or other person, or any loss of or damage to property.
- 1.2 The conduct of the parent or carer shall be disregarded when considering or deciding whether to exclude a pupil from his/her class or the School, and regard shall be had to Section 86 Victimisation of pupils, etc. for conduct of parents, etc. of the Equality Act 2010 (a copy of which can be downloaded from the Internet by visiting <http://www.legislation.gov.uk/ukpga/2010/15/section/86> or is available free of charge upon request).

2 Compliance and regard

- 2.1 It is our intention to comply with the relevant provisions of the EQUALITY ACT 2010 (a copy of which can be downloaded from the Internet by visiting <http://www.legislation.gov.uk/ukpga/2010/15/contents>), and in particular:
- Chapter 1 Schools of Part 6 Education;
 - Schedule 10 Accessibility for disabled pupils;
 - Section 20 Duty to make adjustments;
 - Schedule 13 Education: Reasonable Adjustments; and
 - Schedule 17 Disabled pupils enforcement.
- If at any time you have any reason to believe that any provision of this Act is in any way being contravened, and in particular that any exclusion or step taken by us involves ‘discrimination’, ‘harassment’, ‘victimisation’ or ‘a failure to comply with the duty to make reasonable adjustments’, you must immediately notify the head teacher (which expression shall for the purpose of this Policy include the deputy or acting head teacher for the time being).
- 2.2 It is our intention to have regard to the relevant provisions of any CODE OF PRACTICE for the time being issued under Section 14 of the Equality Act 2006 as required by paragraph 7 of Schedule 13 *Education: Reasonable Adjustments to the Equality Act 2010 (currently ‘Code of Practice for Schools’, a copy of which can be downloaded from the Internet by visiting <http://www.equalityhumanrights.com/advice-and-guidance/information-for-advisers/codes-of-practice/> or is available free of charge upon request). For the avoidance of doubt, we shall not be bound to comply with any particular provision therein. If at any time you have any reason to believe that due regard is not being had you must immediately notify the head teacher.
- 2.3 It is our intention to have regard to the relevant provisions of SECTION 52 *Exclusion of pupils of the EDUCATION ACT 2002 (a copy of which can be downloaded from the Internet by visiting <http://www.legislation.gov.uk/ukpga/2002/32/section/52> or is available free of charge upon request) and all applicable regulations made thereunder. It should be noted that such legislation and regulations have no legal application in respect of the School because it is not a ‘maintained school’, but nevertheless it is our intention to have regard to the principles of good practice set out therein. For the avoidance of doubt, we shall not be bound to comply with any particular provision therein, and in particular any provision limiting or restricting any period of exclusion. If at any time you have any reason to believe that due regard is not being had you must immediately notify the head teacher.

- 2.4 It is our intention to have regard to the School's ACCESSIBILITY PLAN for the time being (a copy of which is available free of charge upon request). For the avoidance of doubt, we shall not be bound to comply with any particular provision therein. If at any time you have any reason to believe that due regard is not being had you must immediately notify the head teacher.
